2018-2019

Competitive Wrestling and Strength Training Session

The competitive wrestling and strength training session is for the competitive youth wrestler who is looking for a competitive live wrestling experience and dedicated time for strength training in addition to the regular Tuesday and Thursday sessions. The program is for wrestlers grades 3-6. However, if space is available, experienced wrestlers younger than 3rd grade may be allowed to register under this session. Competitive wrestlers should have a strong base of experience and be ready for more intense training session. Practice will consist of 30 minutes of live wrestling and 30 minutes of structured strength training.

To register for the Competitive Wrestling and Strength Training Session, visit:

www.chatfieldyouthsports.org

$25 per wrestler

Live Wrestling

Live wrestling provides access to competitive workout partners, so wrestlers can practice intense wrestling to compete at any level. Wrestlers will have the opportunity to wrestle a number of different partners as they will get anywhere from 5-10 matches per night.

Strength Training

In the strength training portion, the wrestlers will receive an introduction to resistance training, speed, and agility training. We will break these basic fitness principles down into fun interval drills, competitions and games.

Competitive Wrestling and Strength Training Session

Begins Monday, November 19, 5-6 p.m.

Practices held every Monday
